TRIP TO THE CAMP.

No. I.

A Liverpool merchant who lately visited this country, after an absence of 14 years, rightly said that the camps of Buenos Ayres reflect more the progress of the Plate than even the city itself; and we are with him. The camps of Buenos Ayres, to the resident foreigner of twenty years and upwards, show greater beneficial change and improvement than even our tramways, city palaces, or railways. A run out from town to Las Heras, thence to Navarro, Mercedes, and a pull up at Chacabuco, is worth all the blue books that our Government can print.

Tired of that oar of which the poet speaks, we accepted Mr. Thomas Duggan's invitation to join him in a trip to the camp, but before we arrived at Mrs. Casey's estancia, at Las Heras, we found leading articles in ñandubay posts, wire fences, splendid estancia houses, with Gladstonian flower gardens, and every evidence and proof of that invincible progress which marks this country and has become almost the motto of this paper. Arriving at Las Heras, we found that for $33 m|c we had just travelled first-class more than double the distance the same money would carry us on the Great Southern and Western Railway in Ireland. Along the route of the Western Railway up to Merlo (the future head-quarters of our trade with China, according to Mr. Serna the auctioneer,) the whole country is but a string of chacras, farms and quintas—but we saw no deer parks. Near Moron we passed a farm where a couple of years ago a countryman made a 'rodeo' of calves, which he bought up from the milkmen all round, 2,000 young 'orejano' calves, at a cost of about $150 m|c each, and then got fined by the Justice of the Peace of Moron for breaking the Rural Code, which prohibited making 'rodeos' of unmarked calves, a business that in this or any other country should be as legitimate as making a watch; our friend was fined $6,000 m|c for his enterprise, but the business proved a splendid one, and covered fines, expenses, &c., as is ever the case in the Plate, where things fall out all right. At Moron small Italian boys came to the carriage doors selling beautiful bouquets for $5 m|c, and it speaks for the taste of the passengers that these boys drive so good a trade. In all our travels, 'by sea and land,' this was the first time that we noticed this trade in flowers. In Brazil women bring trays on their heads with coffee and cakes. In Paraguay the women sell you chipa and cigars, but flowers betoken both affluence and taste, and we were about to purchase a bouquet to support so charming a trade, when our 'companero' told us that at the estancia we were going to they had more flowers than at Lambaré.'

We just caught a glimpse of Erie Park, now the residence of Mr. H A Green, and then skirted the renowned Smith estancia, the property of D. Emilio Castro. This estancia is, perhaps, of all others the most solemn proof of the unerring march of this country: Purchased by Don Emilio in the very zenith of the land fever at a figure that bewildered every River Plate merchant in Liverpool on the Exchange when first announced there, at a figure that every one pronounced exorbitant; and when the land crash came every one exclaimed, "What an unfortunate purchase; never again will Castro see his money!" Quintas and houses and banks and building sites have tumbled, but the fact stands, and it speaks trumpet-tongued for the solid progress of the country—The Smith Estancia at Merlo will fetch to day as much, if not more, than Castro paid for it. Puntavedra, the adjoining estancia, which Mr. Gahan sold for four millions, is to-day all chacras and farms and alfalfares, and worth to the milkmen and chacreros more than the purchase money paid to Mr. Gahan. On all sides hereabout we see the men ploughing immense fields for the new crops. Certainly in the environs of Dublin we saw no such cultivation going on. The Basques own everything hereabout. At Marcos Paz we come on the wreck of the Forbes meat factory: place shut up and going to ruin; thousands of pounds sterling of 'fresh capital' went down there and, like the Bladder Company in the South, the results were negative. Had the money been put into sheep or cattle there would be something to show for it. One of the Scotch girls that worked at that ruined fabric is now an heiress and on her way home to receive her fortune.

At the station General Hornos we did not pull up. Land hereabout has just been sold at $2000 m|c per square, and for a chacra of say 500 squares a higher price would be paid, but the lands are getting so much cut up and subdivided that it is difficult to find a chacra of such large dimensions. Las Heras is the next station, and here to our astonishment, we found an immense stir going on: we counted fully 20 bullock carts loading nandubay posts, and long strings of railway waggons were piled high with these posts which had that morning arrived from the Boca. Where on earth are all these posts going to, thought we, perhaps to fence the Rio Negro territory? but the station master laughed outright and told us that almost every day the same number of posts with wire &c were despatched from that station; some of the posts are now going to Mr Kenny's of Navarro, and others are going to Dr Lahitte's estancia, which is not far off. The station master said that for the last year or so, the traffic at Las Heras had wonderfully increased. We strolled through the town, which was a sheepfarm but a few years ago; large well built azotea houses on all sides. Fairbank's great waggon weighing scales on the railway caught our eye. These scales, we understand, are now put up at every station: a whole railway waggon of wool can thus be weighed in a moment. There were carriages at the station which for 100 m|c take the passengers to any of the estancias, and a fine hotel in front, where the passengers, for 10 m|c, get a capital hot breakfast. Even at Rouen we did not find more conveniences than at Las Heras; could it be possible we were in the camps of Buenos Aires! We drove off four in hand through quintas and wire fences and, emerging from this young and thriving town, we came upon the land of the late Mr Michael Conroy; we passed the old thatched puesto, where D. Miguel lived and died and made the fortune which is now inherited by his children. At the other end of the land is a fine brick azotea house where Mr John Gaynor, the mayordomo, resides; it contrasts wonderfully with the mud hovel where Conroy passed his life time, and shows progress; they were all busy 'señaling' the flocks as we drove up; so we hurried on, passed the fine estancia of Zamudios, and saw in the distance Plumer's, one of the finest properties in the country. Adjoining it are the estancias of Mr Michael Healy, Mrs Garraghan and Mrs Ham, all splendid estates. At Plumer's the cattle have been sent outside and only sheep remain on the land; and indeed at all the places we passed we saw no cattle, but sheep on all sides.

We now drive through other gates and follow the road up to Carrione's pulperia, a wealthy tradesman who sold his wool early in the season at 100$ m|c. and thought he did wonders; the Italian who bought it cleared 70,000,$ m|c., and had he held on to it, he would now double his money. We next pass the estancia of Don Nicolas Gonzalez, a very fine property, and at last reach the gate house of the Casey estancia. The drive up from the lodge to the estancia house is longer than Bruen's at Oak Park or Lord Powerscourt's at the Dargle. The property, 3 leagues square, is not only all fenced, but much of the land is subdivided into large fenced potreros or fields. The estancia house is one of the finest we have seen in the camp, and it is so large that when building many years ago Mr. James Gaynor reminded Mrs Casey of the difficulty of subdividing amongst the heirs at her death. 'Sir,' she answered, 'before I die every one of my children shall have a far grander estancia house of his own,' and she kept her promise.

IMPORTANT FROM CHILE.

(Telegram to the 'Republica.')

Santiago, 29th April.

Bombardment of Callao began on 22nd.

The Chilian squadron remained out of range, and blazed away with shells which set the city on fire in two places, and even fell in the Plaza Victoria. The corvette Union had 12 men killed by a shell; they also drove a torpedo at her, but she escaped, as on a former occasion.

The Chilian Admiral intends to keep pounding away till the Peruvians sue for peace.

The expeditionary army keeps advancing in three divisions, and expects to be at Tacna on 1st. It is feared that Bengolea and Campero's divisions have joined Montero, which would give him 6000 more men.

Great damage in Callao.

People flying in crowds to Lima with their goods and chattels.

Panic in Lima frightful.

Battle at Tacna considered imminent.

THE GOLD MINES.

LA BRAGADA.

(By Dr. Alberdi).

La Bragada is half a league South of the Patacon, and a great many auriferous veins converge on this point. In former years various mining works were carried on here, but none of any importance. The sites are still there, but of very small depth, the greatest not exceeding 20 metres, presenting the same characteristic features, the same culpable disorder mentioned in the Patacon works. Three companies have settled here and in the neighbourhood, but they all made the same mistake of imprevision and ignorance.

From 1869 to 1872 some Englishmen worked a vein: they chose the most unfavorable spot, and their mistaken hydraulic efforts destroyed all the works. On the other hand, they were men of 'vida alegre;' before the works were half finished the money was gone; other Englishmen, setting aside the usual serious character and sound common sense of their race, without any definite idea of the mines they were going to work, nor the spot they were going to choose, arrived with a steam engine and a set of machinery, when they could have used the motive power of water. With slight knowledge of the machinery, which pulverized the quartz in a most deficient manner, owing to bad management, their expectations were deceived, and they abandoned the place, taking the steam engine with them. Later on, in 1876, three foreigners settled on the spot the Englishmen had left, and began crushing the mineral. The natural results followed: they were no miners; they could not distinguish the ore, knew not where to select it, and crushed common rock; besides the machinery was deficient also. The crushing was most imperfect, and they had so arranged the supply of water that this element carried off all the gold.

In 1877 Don Jose Mon transported to Taninga 22 cargoes of mineral, with seven ounces gold to the cajon. After many difficulties and obstructions of all kinds, he had the quartz worked, at a charge of 25 dollars per cajon; the transport cost him one dollar per cargo, and nevertheless he made a profitable business of it. These last figures I hold from Mr. Man himself; as regards the former I have gathered them from witnesses. If they are exact, they are only the natural result of utter mismanagement.

An English gentleman, Mr. Jose Dalton, worked on the same spot. This gentleman, no doubt, was not aware of the hydraulic advantages in La Bragada, as he took a steam engine to work the metal. In Paso de los Navos he worked various veins; at five yards depth the mineral gave him eight ounces gold per ton, or 20 ounces per cajon. In three years Mr. Dalton took out 700 ounces gold. In the beginning the profits were constant; later on they fell off. Mr. Dalton explains this fact, stating that at 30 yards the yield of the mineral declined. I cannot accept this explanation of Mr. Dalton. Firstly, there is not a single mine that has reached the 30 metres vertical depth; secondly, if at 30 yards the yield decreases, it is no reason why the mineral should not increase 15 or 20 yards deeper. It is very often the case that the mineral breaks off and then at a greater depth gives a richer yield. This is easily understood when we examine the veins, abundant in one point and scarce in another.

The veins of auriferous quartz are most numerous and extend afar. The quartz is porous and mixed with hydrate of iron, and the gold is frequently visible. In the south-west of the Calicanto, five squares distant, the quartz is crossed by a powerful vein from south to north, and visible for a long distance. A few squares more and there is another identical vein.

All the neighbouring eminences, particularly in the north-west, are crossed with numerous layers of this same porous quartz. A league to the west of Candelaria there are many others, in the neighborhood of Calera, near the mansion of Doña Rosa Chaves, there is a magnificent vein of bluish quartz of great power and well shaped.

The gold is not accumulated in the north, the auriferous region extends towards the south, following the eastern side of the Sierra Alba. The porous quartz appears again in parts of San Xavier. About one league and a half west of Yacanto I have seen various layers of a quartz identically the same as that of Patacon. Two leagues from the west of the Riartes, on high lands covered with vegetable soil, there is quartz of similar formation. In the Rincon de Luna, two leagues south of Yacouto, the porous quartz appears again.

Some leagues east of the Patacon is situated San Antonio; some 20 squares to the west you see several mines. I have learned very little as to their yield. As the metal appears in simple spots, these became, of course, rare, and the works were abandoned.

Two leagues to the north, in the chacras, there are several abandoned works and quartz veins. The gold, as I have seen it, has also been found in the shape of thick nails in white and compact quartz; the works did not exceed 20 yards depth. D. Jose Dalton worked one of the veins with three men and took out one half and three quarters of ounce of gold per day, but the gold began to decrease at 10 metres.

There is therefore not the slightest doubt that the auriferous zone embraces an immense area, comprising in the north the district between the Sierra Alta and the Valley of Panilla, and extending towards the south to the department of Cahamuchita. It is worthy of note that the veins appear to be more numerous and to give better yield on the hills at the foot of the Sierra Alta. It may therefore be seen what an imperfect idea those have as to the mineral productions of the Province of Cordoba who think that its mining industries are limited to the silver of Guaico and the Argentina, or the copper of Calamuchita.

LATEST FROM PARIS.

Our own Correspondent.)

March 17th.

The famous annual ham fair is now taking place in and around the Bastille, and is limited to three days, like an orthodox revolution. It is the oldest fair in Paris, and has survived that of St. Germain, which has disappeared since ages. In the seventh and eighth centuries 'baconiques, or bacon-parties' were generally given by the Chapter of Notre Dame, to soften the rigors of Lent; dealers in time brought their bacon to sell here, and from habit sprang up the custom of a fair; the bakers next put in an appearance, and so limited was space, that the gibbet, which was permanently erected in front of the Cathedral had to lend its aid to hang flitches. In time shows and cheap jacks became grafted on the fair, and from sundry peregrinations, it has now a fixed residence. The practice of ham being a favorite dish in Lent, is probably due to the circumstance, that formerly the church accorded dispensations to private parties to indulge in eating it occasionally during the Forty Days. The Parliament prohibited chandlers and knacker's yard people from selling pork, their trades not being like Cæsar's wife; as a compensation, pigs were allowed to roam unmolested in the streets not crying out, 'who'll eat me?' but eating children, and when these were scarce, adults. But some pigs having upset once a son of Louis le Gros while riding, pigs were prohibited from promenading the streets, save those belonging to the Monastery of St. Anthony, and these were even required to wear a bell round the neck, if not the wanderer could be taken up, led to the executioner, who despatched the animal, reserving the head for himself. Irish hams appear to be on the increse this year; horse-flesh is made up in tins, and so looking like canned meat from the States as to deceive even the very elect.

At a rule, the Easter eggs in sugar and chocolate, are larger this season for their money value than heretofore; they contain no longer the costly presents of a lace dress or a boudoir clock: the shells have embroidered sugar-work, a wrinkle from the prevailing fashion of toilettes. Inside one egg was a hen hatching: inside another a model of the tomb of Napoleon, and in a third, Christ riding on an ass into Jerusalem. The gingerbread fair is commencing to open: as yet only blocks of that cake are visible, but in such quantities that M. de Freycinet might find therein sufficient material to construct all his contemplated breakwaters. No specimen of the plastic art applied to yellow dough has been exhibited, but then the artists are busy with their pictures for the May Show; Clemencean, it is rumored, will be the popular hero in this year's supply of gingerbread; the Jesuits will also be given to be devoured, and Hartmann, though lost to sight, will be to memory dear, for some bakers and those who consider refugees should not be presented to autocratic rulers like Sevres vases.

The Grand Opera has produced Aida at last, and although it was represented in Paris a few years ago at the Italiens, the present may be considered, in point of mounting and execution, as the first performance. The work was originally commanded by the ex-Khedive, who gave Verdi 150,000 francs in the Egyptian debt, for bringing it out at Cairo, in December 1871. The story is old, the interpretation new. The orchestra was conducted by Verdi himself, which was not only a great attraction, but a triumph over the custom in France, never to allow a composer to direct the execution of his own score. It was this refusal that led Wagner's works years ago to be hissed here; had he led the orchestra the verdict might have been different. Verdi does not seem to have much changed within the last ten years, and he threw his whole soul into the baton. Mdlle. Krauss (Aida) was perfect as cantatrice and tragedienne; the role marks the apogee of her talent. Maurel (Amonastro) was also a brilliant success, uniting dramatic and lyrical truth: many prefer him in this new part to his Don Juan and Hamlet. Mdlle. Bloch (Amneris) did not create uniform pleasure, and it is questionable if her contralto voice suits her role. The ballet was very splendid. By this success, the Opera has done much to justify its title of National Academy of Music. There is difference of opinion as to the value of the score, just as the critic relishes or dislikes the Wagnerian influence: but whether he belongs to the Italian or the German school, Verdi, remains ever Verdi, and such was the meaning of 'the tyrannical frenzy' of the house which greeted him.

Some distressing cases of suicide have occurred on the part of soldiers, and in two cases, of small boys just in their teens; the soldiers were prepared to seek the bubble reputation at the cannon's mouth, but could not survive disappointed love; the boys apparently hanged themselves, from having nothing else to do. Two Bulgarians have been transported for fifteen years: mistaking a jeweller's shop in the Palais Royal for one in their own country, they broke the plate of glass and helped themselves to diamonds.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The new British Cabinet was the theme yesterday amongst all Her Gracious Majesty's subjects in town, and, we suppose, in the camp also. The Liberals declare it splendidly strong, and expect great domestic reforms. The Tories swear to a man that there is something 'Radically' wrong about it, and that the bare idea of Sir Charles Dilke being on the Treasury bench is enough to permanently shatter the British Constitution. The programme of the new Government shows no cause for fearing such a supreme catastrophe, which has, if we remember aright, been periodically predicted before, on all occasions when 'the intellect of England' party promised a further stride along that road of reform and progress on which it leads the way. The most touchy part of Mr Gladstone's programme is 'a return to cordial relations with Russia.' Gortschakoff must have looked radiant and the Sublime Porte sublimely rabid when they read the news.

The telegrams from the West Coast give hope of a speedy wind up: in fact it is clear to impartial observers that, if the men who rule Peru are insane enough to prolong the struggle for another month, the Chilians may possibly dictate peace in the City of the Incas itself. The telegrams say the panic in Lima is truly terrible.

There was nothing particularly fresh in politics yesterday, bu the rumours flying about are enough to make even editors nervous. The delay of the Comision, de Poderes of Congress in deciding on the election intensifies the excitement, although some people consider it a hopeful sign.

The Rev. Father Martin will preach to-morrow at the Merced Church, after the Mass at 1 o'clock. There will be a general communion on Sunday, 9th, at the same church at 8 a.m. The Archbishop has given permission to all English-speaking Catholics to make the Easter communion at the Merced Church. The Rev. Father Martin hears confessions every morning after the mass at 7 o'clock.

Our camp colleagues are getting along in the world. The Freeman of Chascomus has started a special telegraphic service of its own. When we first saw old Chascomus it would have required a member of the Literary Society there to explain what a telegraph was.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin's letters to Mr. Michael Carroll, Chairman of the Irish Relief Fund, will be found in another column.

Fining the 'conventillos' is now producing a splendid revenue to the city. Twelve of these precious establishments had to stump up $3,000 m|c each yesterday, which, with $72,000 more inflicted since Monday last, makes $108,000 m|c for the week. This beats the dog tax hollow.

Our Montevidean neighbours are getting their pecker up for a shindy. 'Colorados, a las armas!' is the latest cry down there, under the disguise of a Tiro Nacional Club. It is greatly to be feared that Colonel Latorre, or some man of his kidney, will soon be required across the water, to keep order. A few big Lottery prizes mislaid signify nothing in comparison to peace and order for a whole country.

We plead guilty to having forgot ten in yesterday's issue two of our best friends—Mr Nolte of Calle Cangallo and Mr Burton of Calle Piedad, the well known newsagents, who both kindly sent us the latest papers from London. We now beg to make the 'amende' and thank them very much. Next to a new subscriber, there is no man who is always so warmly welcome in a newspaper office as a news agent.

Archbishop Aneiros is expected to return to town to-day from his trip to Zarate, where he consecrated a new church on Tuesday last.

An awful accident happened some days ago at Liebig's Meat Factory, Fray Bentos, where three little children drank from a bottle in which there had been poison. One died in an hour, and the other two are in a dangerous state.

The Asuncion papers report a funny business at the opening of a Seminario Conciliar there. All the Cabinet Ministers and big wigs in the place were present, but they were all ashamed to make a speech (what a miracle in South America!) and a lady present stood up and made a capital one, giving the sheepish males present a stiff bit of her mind. Bravo, Señora!

The General Meeting of the Montevidean British Hospital subscribers came off on Thursday.

Yesterday was another great day ae the Passengers Mole, which was crowded with leave-takers wishing good-bye to friends going to Europe in the fine German Lloyds steamer Nürnberg. Amongst the passengers by this steamer is as we bfore mentioned, Mr. Mayntzhusen of Hamburg and also Mr. Pfingsten, the well-known furniture exporter of Hamburg, who has been out here for some time visiting his friends in the River Plate. Mr. Sommer junr. also left in same steamer on a business trip to Europe.

The Marina Regatta is announced to come off on the 25th of May.

We are glad to see one of our native colleagues espouse the cause of the poor, ill-treated cart-horse of Buenos Ayres, moved thereto by having witnessed a poor brute fall under an overloaded cart, and his savage driver beating it about the head to force it to rise. Would that the police would adopt our colleague's suggestion for suppressing this shocking brutality, viz., to weigh the load under which a horse falls, and then fine the owner of the goods in it $10,000 m|c right off. A capital plan, but the police are too busy 'politiqueering' just now to adopt it.

A party who has just returned from the Russian colony of Olavarria, gives a very pathetic description of the hard life of the gentleman at the head of the telegraph department there: He lives in a rancho, the appliances for ventilating the roof of which are so perfect, that in rainy weather he has to keep his top-coat on and carry a cotton umbrella even when in bed, and when sending messages the umbrella is also required to keep the rain from the instruments. Have the authorities who condemn this gentleman to such an existence no re-'Morse'?

The Lavarello steamer Sud America is continually getting caught in fearful storms. She encountered another on her recent trip out, but was handled so splendidly that she did not lose even a rope or bucket.

The Colon Theatre opera company make their first appearance this evening in I. Puritani. The tenor, Mario, is a countryman of Gayarre's, a Biscayan; and a morning colleague, who has heard him sing, says that the 'divine Stagno' is merely a tin whistle compared with him.

A morning paper declares that the tenor Jourdan, at the Variedades Theatre, sings the opening aria of La Favorita, 'Una Angela,' in a manner that Gayarre himself can hardly beat. We remark that there is one party in the papers crying this company down, and another lauding it to the skies. For our part, we think it a very fair one.

The biggest man in this Republic has just died in Gualeguaychu—Corporal Luna, who required exactly double the quantity of cloth, to cover him in uniform, which his fellow soldiers found ample.

TUCUMÁN SUGAR.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

Will you be kind enough to correct sundry erroneous statements which have appeared in your paper (of this day's date) in a letter from your special correspondent in Tucuman signed 'John Samson,' concerning two sugar factories in that Province, of which one, the 'Concepcion', belongs to Sr Dn. Juan Crisostomo Mendez, and the other the 'Esperanza' belongs to Sr. Dn. Wenceslao Posse.

Mr. Samson says each cost an equal amount. This is not the case: Sr. Mendez's machinery supplied by Fawcett Preston and Co, including freights to Rosario cost £15,331, and the building, made, it is true, to suit his convenience, at different times, and erected in combination with existing structures, has cost about £3,500; in all £18,831, say £19,000. Sr Posse's machinery by Messrs. Cail and Co. cost including freights to Rosario £24,395, and the building, a very much larger one than that at the 'Concepcion,' (which is large enough for either plant) cost about £19,000, in all £34,395, say £34,500, nearly 82 per cent more.

The machinery at Sr. Mendez's estate is rather more powerful than that at Sr. Posse's.

The following is a comparison of some of the principal parts:—

Sr. Mendez's mill is 63 inches in length X 32 inches in diameter.

Sr. Posse's ditto. 58½ ditto. X 31½ ditto.

Sr. Mendez's triple effect apparatus contains 3,000 sq. ft. surface.

Sr. Posse's ditto 3,800 ditto.

Sr. Mendez's vacuum pan can strike 300 cubic feet.

Sr. Posse 2 ditto less than 250 cubic feet.

The centrifugals at Sr. Mendez's place can turn out about one ton of sugar per hour, and the centrifugals at Sr. Posse's about 11 hundred weight per hour. S. Posse has greater boiler power.

Finally the crop of 1879 at the 'Concepcion,' rather a bad year as far as the quality of the cane was concerned, was 51,921 arrobes and Sr. Mendez expects to grind three times as much cane this year, so that the crop will hardly be less than 150,000 arrobes, just three times what Mr. Samson's statement of 50,000 arrobes would leave one to suppose.

The crop last year at Sr. Posse's was a little in excess of 42,000 arrobes,

As to the quality of the sugar made it is only necessary to add that all Sr. Mendez's is sold, and a considerable amount of Sr. Posse's is not sold, and this is perhaps as valuable a consideration to the owner as handsome appearance, which we fully admit our friends Messrs. Cail and Co. used to pay great attention to, and have no doubt that the Joint Stock Company, their successors, are as careful of as we ourselves endeavour to be.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servants,
p.p. Fawcet, Preston and Co.
V. Waltran Chapman.

The official liquidation for the end of the month showed a total of close on to $f10,000,000 gold, and old times appeared to have returned to-day on the Bolsa. Gold made a rocket-like upward rush of 20 cents, while Cedulas were done for cash at 87½, and for end of May at 86, at the same moment.

Opening hard at 30.80, gold moved rapidly up to 30.90, when a slight reaction occurred and large sums were passed at 30.85. The market closed firm at 30.90 buyers.

Cedulas stiffened considerably as they proved to have been oversold for this date.

National Bank Shares were dealt in during official hours at, or near, 58½ per cent, but looked weak.

Many rumours were afloat to account for the sudden rise in gold; among others, that the National Government were likely to receive twenty millions of paper dollars from the Provincial Bank, to be appropriated to the purchase of armaments. According to general report the National Government have more than enough warlike elements, and the Patria Argentina asserts that what they really require is men. In any case to-day's rise is thought by sensible and forseeing men to be mainly, if not entirely, attributable to the temporary squeeze frequently associated with the close of a month's operations.

In exchange almost nothing is doing. The Horrox leaves to-morrow, but her business has been effected in anticipation. Rates are quoted the same as yesterday. If gold maintain its present price, the Provincial Bank exchange will be much sought for, since it draws at an equivalent of 49 7/16d, taking the gold patacons as costing 30.90.

With regard to North American produce, the latest cable news to hand report a very dull market in hides, and stock accumulating. Prices are disposed to give way. A large speculation seems to have been made in March, and a great quantity of hides have passed into second hands for disposal.

Messrs Sansinena & Sons have favored us with their valuable bi-monthly review, from which we condense the following interesting data:—From the commencement of the killing season to date about 206,500 head have been slaughtered against 280,000 in the season 1878 to 1877, and against 250,000 head in the previous years. The River Plate and Rio Grande have killed in—

847,300	1,286,000	1,111,000	1,098,500

In salt matadero hides from this Province ten thousand have changed hands at reserved prices; leaving no stock on hand.

It was known at a late hour that the Comision de Poderes of the National Senate had ratified the election of the representatives from San Luis, San Juan and Entre Rios.

Discounts continue low with every indication of become easier. National Treasury Bills have fallen to 79½, owing to the retirement of a well-known heavy dealer in this stock.

Cedulas Hipotecarias were done afterhours as high as 87½, and we note the simultaneous sale of 10,000 $f. of same security, for 31st May, at 86 p. cent.

It was announced on 'Change to-day, that Congress will not open until Monday or Tuesday, Governor Tejedor's opening address to the Provincial Chambers is looked forward to with intense interest. It is thought by many that it will give the keynote to the future political evolutions.

A heavy demand for 'special' gold for shipment to Montevideo and to the Rivers has been experienced the last few days, and buyers offer 1½ per cent prem. This export has undoubtedly had something to do with the hardening of gold. It is, nevertheless, deserving of attention that there are tons of gold offering for end of May 30.90, and we know of transactions as low as 30.85 for the 15th prox.

The month's liquidation was the most exciting the Bolsa has seen for some time past. Gold during afterhours at one time touched 31, and yet at 5 p.m. over 120,000 pats. were sold in auction at 30.85 and 30.80. Cedulas were short and purchased in remate at 87½-⅞-½. Gold is evidently too materially heavy to be carried, except by very strong men.

At afterhours the following sales:—

The Minister of the Interior has officially advised steamer agents and railway and diligence managers that no account or claim whatever for carrying passengers for Government account will be paid unless the written order of the Minister for such service be produced when claiming payment.

It is stated that over 600 pipes of tallow were destroyed in the conflagration at the Guaviyu saladero.

In reference to the Buenos Aires Exhibition and the persistent rumours for the past week to the effect that it can not be ready in time and will be postponed, we are authorised to state that the Commissioners have no intention whatever of postponing it; that the contracts for the building have already been signed; that the woodwork is already being prepared in the workshops in Plaza Mayo, and that the erection of the building will be commenced as soon after the May Fetes as possible. As regards the astonishment expressed in the London Press at sheepshears being refused as exhibits in the greatest sheepcountry in the world, the Commissioners only intend to accept machinery.

It was said on 'Change to-day that there is some probability of Dr Cortinez succeeding Dr Plaza as National Minister of Finance. Dr Cortinez has held the post before, provisionally, and is highly thought of as a careful and painstaking official.

The General Post Office has made a contract with the Pacific Steam Navigation Company for carrying the Argentine mails once a fortnight to Liverpool and Valparaiso; the extreme limit of time allowed being 38 days to the former port and 20 to the latter.

It was announced to-day that the Government of Corrientes has finally arranged the expropriation of the lands necessary for the extension of the East Argentine Railway and that the works will be at once commenced. The low price of the shares of this line and its capital prospects are attracting attention in the London papers, which publish letters enquiring why such a promising property is selling so low.

The land movement is now extending to the Gran Chaco. Messrs E. J. Justo are in treaty with the National Government to purchase four square leagues of prime land on the Rio Bermejo, at 2,000 pats per league, which they intend to fence and stock with cattle; they engage to settle 20 families on the land within 9 months, and to have 600 head of cattle grazing within one year. Cattle are now the favourite stock all over the country. Nothing pays better.

An estanciero of Durazno, B. O., reports as follows:—

"Camps dry and bare of grass, and in many parts this winter there will be many hides to take off. Sheep doing very well. For all we out here know, matters political are quiet as possible. A few frosts already. Maize crops out here are by no means bad; on the average from all I can hear; mine is good."

Notwithstanding the exalted tone of many of the members of the local press, an advance of only ten cents can be recorded in the gold market. The papers teem with bellicose report; time advances, and the political horizon is apparently more gloomy than ever; the immediate future is full of uncertainty, and yet all this has not disturbed the average price of gold a tenth part as much as a single disquieting telegram would have done last year. It must also be remembered that the firmness now witnessed in gold may be naturally accounted for by the customary squeeze at the end of a month, and it is worthy of notice that prices for future dates are, if anything, weaker than for cash. The general belief that the country will eventually emerge from the present presidential dilemma without incurring the horrors of civil war, though severely tested, is not demolished. The answer to the Presidential question, though long deferred, will, when given, be less ambiguous than that of the Delphic Oracle. The Argentine nation has too much sense to fly to arms, whenever individual convictions are thwarted.

The London financial papers give the following respecting River Plate securities—

"The annual general meeting of the Montevidean and Brazilian Telegraph Company Limited, has just been held at the offices, Arms Yard, Moorgate Street, Sir Thomas Gore Browne, the chairman, presiding. The report for the year ended Dec. 31st last stated that the company's percentage of the gross earnings of the Western & Brazilian Company amounted for the year to £3,040, the December quarter being estimated at £850. They had been satisfied that the sum of £432, which the Western and Brazilian Company claimed to deduct as the proportion chargeable to this company of the cost of carrying messages overland in 1878 while portions of their cable were under repair, was a proper claim, and it had been allowed. After setting aside £500 for redemption of debentures, and providing for all charges and debenture interest accruing during the year, there remained a net balance of £1,229, out of which they proposed to pay a dividend of ½ per cent, and to carry forward a balance of £190. On the motion of the chairman, seconded by Lieutenant Colonel G W Macauley, the report was adopted. The dividend was declared, and the retiring director and auditor re-elected."

"The report of the Central Uruguay Railway for the year 1879 shows that the gross receipts for the year were £110,311, expenses £39,312, profits £30,999.

"The gross receipts increased by £13,230, and the profits by £16,341, or 47.15 per cent.

"The working expenses were 53.77 per cent against 64.29 per cent.

"The Debenture Stock interest is £26,937, and after paying it there is a balance for dividend of £33,331, which admits of 6d per share divident free of income tax, carrying forward £4,963.

"The country is improving."

"The increase in the traffic of the Central Argentine Railway for the four weeks to 22nd February, 1880, is considerable. It is £7,727, or about 20 per cent. The news, however, of an election-eering riot at Cordoba has knocked down the price of the shares."

Messrs Oostendorp & Co., of Antwerp, give the following review of the River Plate produce market to April 3rd:—

Hides—

Imports, 2,300 dry, 38,800 salted R. Plate an 1 2,500 dry horse hides.

Sales, 1,500 dry, 7,400 salted R. Plate, 1,300 salted Rio Grande, and 1,400 miscellaneous.

Stock, 93,100 hides, viz: 10,600 dry, 68,100 salted R. Plate, 1,300 salted Rio Grande, 12,100 horse and 1,100 miscellaneous.

A quiet tone has continued to prevail during last fortnight and new season saladero hides have so far attracted but little attention although prices show a decline on quotations of beginning of March of f.2 for salted cows as well as 15/32 kilos ox and f.4 for 32/40 kilos ox. Dry hides are nominally unchanged, but no business of any importance has taken place in same.

The quotations for following kinds of hides are:—

Dry B. Aires mat. ox, 13-16½ kilos, of fair quality f.140-145

Ditto of secondary quality f.135-140

Dry B. Aires mat. cows, 10-10½ kilos, of fair quality f.135-143

B. Aires saladero ox summer hair—
15/20 kil..... f.70-74
20/25 do..... 78-82
25/32 do..... 85-89
32/40 do..... 79-83

B. Aires saladero cows summer hair—
14/20 kil..... f.70-73
20/25 do..... 84-87
25/28 do..... 87-90

B. Aires salted matadero hides winter hair can be quoted at f70 to 75 for 64 to 65 lb ox, and f65 to 68 for 50 lb cows. River and Montevideo would command about f.5 less.

On Delivery. No transactions have been reported here.

Floating Cargoes. Following sale has been mentioned in England: 4,270 Rio Grande ox 70 lb, and 450 do 50 lb per Oscar on private terms.

The Liverpool market has remained very quiet owing partly to the Easter holidays.

Leather. Business is inactive in England notwithstanding more favorable news from the United States. The Frankfort fair held on 24th March came off quietly, last prices being only weakly maintained.

Wool—

Imports, 9,800 bales River Plate

Sales, 4,700 bales B. Aires, 800 bales Montevideo, 300 bales Cape and 600 bales miscellaneous.

Stock, 12,000 bales B. Aires, 2,700 bales Montevideo and 100 bales Entre Rios, besides 600 bales miscellaneous.

The demand has continued very brisk and holders have been able to establish a further advance making a total improvement of 20c to 25c for B. Aires on last auctions' rates, and sometimes even a little more. Montevideo wools of extra quality are still sought after for shipment to the U. States, and rule 30-40c above January quotations.

New clip Buenos Aires invoices, averaging 1a., are at present worth about—f.1.35 1.05 for well conditioned 32-33 o/o f.1.75 1.80 for good average 30-31 o/o f.155 1.70 for secondary 27-29 o/o

Fair to good Montevideo shipments averaging a 2a., 32-40 o/o, are quoted f.2.35-2.50.

Secured Buenos Aires wool has been made to stand in (washing and forwarding expenses excluded) at f.6.30-6 for fair, f.6.10-6.15 for good, and f.6.25-6.50 for superior 1a.

The second series of this year of the Antwerp public sales will open between the 26th and 28th April according importance of quantities, which will be declared on 15th inst.

At the three sittings of the Havre auctions which took place on the 15th, 17th and 18th March, out of 4,837 bales brought forward, 3,809 were disposed of at an advance of 25 c. on their January rates.

It may be interesting to remark that the arrivals of River Plate wools in Antwerp, Havre, Bordeaux and Liverpool since the 1st December till the 31st March show on the figures of corresponding period of preceding season an increase of 6,100 bales, and sales 85,200 bales, whereas the transit decreased by 9,900 bales, and the stock on hand in above four markets on 31st March was 17,800 bales against 34,100 in 1879.

Sheepskins—

Stock 178 bales.

Sales, 63 bales at an advance of 10c. on February rates.

Invoices from ½ to full woolled prime Buenos Aires matadero skins averaging a 1a are worth f.1.80-85.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

A las 2 de la tarde

Llamamos la atencion de los Señores Estancieros sobre este escepcional lote de toros sangre pura Durham, procedentes del primer establecimiento en Inglaterra propiedad del Duque de Manchester y conocids por Kimbolton Herd. Es universalmente sabido que este noble criador es quien paga y ha pagado siempre los mas altos precios por animales reproductores en ganado vacuno que se han presentado a venta en el reino unido y prueba de ello es que el toro padre de algunos de los que ofrecemos hoy en remate Duke of Underley, le cuesta 4000 guineas ($f.20,000) mas o menos, cuando no tenia un año de edad, de consiguiente, creemos no exagerar al decir que no ha venido nada mejor hasta hoy al pais.

Mencionaremos que los certificados vienen con la firma autentica del Duque de Manchester.

He aqui el pormenor.

MARQUIS MONTHERMER 2°—Overo nacido Mayo 29 de 1878 ($1,950) hijo de Grand Duke of Morecombe (36722) y Lady Worcester 10½.

BRABANT 2°—Overo nacido 10 de Octubre 1878 (41,122) hijo del Duke of Underley (38196) y Guinevere.

Antes de comprar, examinese con mucha cautela el Rotulo en el Bote o la Caja, para cerciorarse si esta la direccion de 533, Oxford Street, London, pues si no esta, entonces se trata de perpetrar un descarado engaño.

Muy importante para el Publico.

Rosado de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como tales las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores sin escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con esto reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.
